POWERS TO ACT IN CONCERT WITH THE UNITED STATES-- GREAT BRITAIN MAKES HER FRIENDLY ATTITUDE CLEAR

Mexican Minister Holds That Fairness of Elections and Not Number of Votes Decide the Value of Contests at Polls—Catholics Claim Majorities in Many Localities, But Indications Are Favorable to Diaz

Complete Returns Will Be Several Weeks Coming in—All Votes for Huerta to Be Thrown Out—Anti-Intervention Sentiment Merging in New Party—France Asks U. S. to Send Warship to Sinaloa

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Reports from the British foreign office that Great Britain will do nothing in the Mexican situation, now that elections have been held, without consulting the United States, have aroused interest in official circles today and have added strength to the persistent intimations that the American government plans a note to the powers which may result in a concerted Mexican policy in the future.

Bryan, when shown the dispatches from London which asserted Great Britain's recognition of Huerta was given to extend only until the elections, stated that such had been the understanding here all the time.

When asked if a note was in preparation that would open the way for negotiations with foreign powers, he said that no statement or intimations along this line could be given at this time.

AS MINISTER VIEWS IT

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—Mexican Minister of the Interior Aldeape when asked today regarding the requirements for a legal election replied: "The essential thing is that the returns come in from a majority of the electoral districts and that the elections held there have been fair, even though only a small proportion of voters may have availed themselves of the privilege of voting. The votes which may have been cast for Huerta will be thrown out as illegal on the ground that they are unconstitutional, in accordance with the president's direction."

Out of the 970 polling places in the Federal district, the Catholic party leaders claim a majority of 920 for their candidates. Frederico Gamboa and General Rascon. The returns from Colima, Guadalajara and various smaller towns also indicate Catholic majorities.

Huerta and Blanquet received a majority in the smaller places. It is said by many politicians that enough votes have been cast for the Huerta-Blanquet ticket to invalidate the election, in view of General Huerta's declaration that congress must declare these votes illegal.

DEPORT AMERICANS

NOGALES, Oct. 27.—Frank Smith, John Brent and Ames Landre, American citizens, were deported today from Sonora by the State on account of alleged association with the Bandit Rafael Campa, executed some time ago. The three men have been in jail in Hermosillo for six months. Their nationality is all that saved them.

FRANCE ASKS U. S. AID

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—The French minister has appealed to American charge Nelson O'Shaughnessy for aid for the French colony at San Ignacio, Sinaloa, which is reported to have been taken by the rebels. As no French warship is available, the minister asked that an American warship be sent.

AFRAID TO GO TO POLLS

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—Owing to a demoralized condition of means of communication, the result of the elections will probably not be known for several weeks. It is hoped, however, that the "Ayuntamiento," a body resembling a board of aldermen, will have prepared a report for the Federal district by the end of the week. Reluctance to go to the polls was general. Besides lack of experience in such affairs, there is said to have been general fear that evil consequences would follow, should the voter choose a losing candidate.

ANTI-INTERVENTION PARTY

SAN LUIS POTOSI, Oct. 27.—Posters announcing the candidacy of Huerta and Blanquet and calling upon the people to vote for "men of steel" and to beware of being misled in these critical times, kept many of the voters from the polls in yesterday's elections here. Gamboa, the Catholic party candidate, received a majority. The posters also announced the birth of a new party called the "anti-interventionist."

LOOSE VOTING

EAGLE PASS, Oct. 27.—Rebels claim that when the Piedras-Nebras polls closed yesterday the vote stood 95 for Diaz to 1200 for Huerta. In scores of cases, it is asserted, single soldiers voted in the names of a dozen different persons. It is said some entire companies of soldiers were voted by the officers.

Thaw for further continuance in the extradition proceedings, setting November 4 as the final date on which his attorneys may file a supplementary brief bearing on the conspiracy indictment returned against their client by the New York county grand jury.

Continuance of two weeks has been requested William Tavers Jerome, who opposed delay, will be allowed two days to answer the new brief. Probably 3,000 persons gathered at the city hall to see Thaw. It was a Thaw crowd.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—At session of the world's W. C. T. U. held in Brooklyn tonight it was announced that $1,900 was raised during the convention by collection. The next world's convention will probably be held in Australia in 1915.

STRIKERS TAKE GUARDS AND ENGINE IN BATTLE ON C. & S. RAILROAD

TRINIDAD, Oct. 27.—Strikers captured seven guards today at Chicono Junction, eight miles north of Trinidad. It is also reported that they captured a Colorado & Southwestern engine.

For half an hour more than 125 strikers battled at a mile range with several steel carloads of mine guards who were traveling over the railroad, extensively on the way to the Hastings mine.

The strikers had been led to believe the guards were entraining to attack the tent colony. Three guards are reported to have been slightly wounded.

STRIKE LEADER SENT TO JAIL—COURT SAYS WICKED, DANGEROUS

DUBLIN, Oct. 27.—Jas. Larkin, leader of the striking Irish Transport workers, was today found guilty on charges of sedition and inciting riot. He was sentenced to 7 months imprisonment.

The attorney general, opening for the prosecution, said Larkin was prosecuted not because a labor leader, but because he was a "wicked, dangerous criminal."

The Irish Transport workers have been on a strike since early September. Such distress prevails among their families that English Trade unions have sent large quantities of supplies.

LANGFORD ELIMINATES ANOTHER WHITE HOPE— 150 SPECTATORS HURT

TAFT, Calif., Oct. 27.—Sam Langford, of Boston, veteran negro heavyweight, demonstrated conclusively today that Jack Lester, of Orem, Washington, has no right in the list of white hopes.

Lester took the count in the fifth round. In the third he landed his only blow, a glancing swing to mouth. It drew blood but did no harm.

In the fourth he was knocked down three times and was saved by the bell. When it rang for a fifth he was still so groggy he could not get up.

Although Langford took three easy and did not make the most of his superiority, Lester had nothing to show on chances given him. The fight was entirely one-sided.

One hundred and fifty spectators were dropped 20 feet by the collapse of two rows of seats during the fight. Two were taken to the hospital.

NO CONQUEST EVER AGAIN FOR THE U. S.

President Wilson So Says Before Southern Commercial Congress and Latin American Delegates.

Meaning as to Mexico Made Clear, While Not Put Specifically—Daniels Says Canal Not a Naval Threat

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 27.—The busy six hour stay of President Wilson, speeches by Leader Underwood, Secretary Daniels and many others, marked opening of the 7th Annual Southern Commercial congress here today.

Mr. Underwood advocated up-building of the American Merchant marine as the best method of gaining the commerce expected with opening of the Panama canal. He emphasized the point that the country never could gain the increase in trade expected from the opening of the canal without the shipyard being controlled by the United States.

While avoiding any mention specifically of Mexico, or European influence connected with the Mexican situation, President Wilson delivered a speech today before the Southern Commercial congress that appeared to be freighted with significance and served to point, with directness, the U. S. policy not only toward Mexico but toward all Central and South American republics.

A score of South American diplomats sat just behind the President. Many of his sentences were so pointed as to leave little doubt of their intent. "Material interests, a phrase much in use of late in characterizing the attitude of foreign nations toward Mexico, was frequently employed. He declared the American republics had suffered long from hard bargains forced upon them by holders of concessions, seeking "Material interests" in the countries affected, and said that through motives of morality, not expediency, the U. S. desired to help the Latin American republics to "Emancipation from the subordination which has been inevitable to foreign enterprise." He spoke with confidence of the dominance part the United States expects to play in the future.

"Not through any idea of Material Interests," he explained, "but through love of the people and of constitutional liberty. The United States will never again seek one additional foot of territory by conquest, he declared amid applause. Wilson was taken on a sight-seeing expedition in the harbor and later started back to Washington with cheers ringing about his special car.

Coincident with the vast benefits that will accrue to commerce through opening of the Panama canal, Secretary Daniels told the delegates to the congress tonight that the opening would not double the efficiency of the navy, although in increasing the mobility of fleets it would render the navy more effective.

MISS ELKINS WEDS

ELKINS, W. Va., Oct. 27.—Katherine Elkins, daughter of the late Senator Elkins, was married here today to William F. R. Hitt, son of a former congressman from Illinois.

WASHINGTON SURPRISED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Diplomatic and society circles of Washington heard of the Elkins-Hitt marriage with unusual interest. The news was a complete surprise here. A few years ago capital society was certain that Miss Elkins would marry the Duke of Abruzzi. The ceremony today was most informal.

Sensational Testimony is Introduced—Mob Threatens Jews

KIEV, Russia, Oct. 27.—The second act of the Belias trial was begun today with the submission of evidence of medical and religious experts on the alleged practice of the ritual of blood.

Father Prenates, a Roman Catholic priest, figures as the principal ecclesiastical denunciator of the Jews. The testimony of the Orthodox Archimandrite Ambrosius was read today, telling of alleged ritual murder practices with detail.

All the cases mentioned are based on hearsay from converted Jews. Prompt action of the police at Loda today prevented a mob from attacking the Jews.

THE OREGON WILL GO THROUGH THE CANAL WITH ITS OLD CREW

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The desire of 50 San Francisco members of the crew of the famous old battleship Oregon to be on her decks when she leads the international fleet through Panama Canal in 1915, will be gratified.

As congress stipulates the term of enlistment shall be 25 years, it is not possible to allow the crew to re-enlist 60 to 90 days as they desired, but Secretary Daniels is considering inviting as many of the old officers and men of the Oregon as can assemble to make the trip.

Rear-Admiral Clark, the Oregon's commander on the famous trip around the Horn, will be at his old post on the bridge.

NOT COUNTEANED BY POPE

LONDON, Oct. 27.—In correspondence between Lord Rothschild and Cardinal Merry Del Val published here, the papal secretary of state confirms the statement that Pope Innocent IV issued an encyclical in which he declared that the charge of ritual murder applied to Judaism was a baseless, wicked invention and that other popes had made similar pronouncements.

As soon as Deputy Sheriff Howe learned the identity of the man who shot Barola, he went to the Ybarra house in Zacatecas. The mother of Ybarra, who is a comparatively young man and has been a laborer in the surface carpentering department of the Copper Queen, resented search of his effects and declared the loaded repeating rifle belonging to him and found in the house should not be taken away. The officer, however, declined to leave the weapon for the possible use of the man in making resistance to arrest, and because of this Ybarra faced his own gun when called upon to throw up his hands.

He was placed in jail and will be held for preliminary hearing until Barola's injuries have time to fully develop.

Barola was standing on the floor of the Crow bar yesterday morning when Ybarra entered. Ybarra walked close to him and then without word of warning pulled his revolver. Barola, frightened beyond power to move, stood stock still while Ybarra deliberately aimed at his head and fired. The gun shot low and the ball entered the side of Barola's face, just above the jaw bone, and lodged against his skull near the base of the back of his head. NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—One hundred twenty-five chauffeurs employed to transport the United States mail on motor trucks went on a strike without warning tonight. The entire section south of 45th street is affected. This district includes the general post office and branches at the railroad terminals and steamship piers.

Men employed by the Postal Transport Service company which has the contract to carry the mail, John Masten, superintendent, said the men struck because the union had not been recognized.

Thousands of sacks of mail matter of all classes are piled high at the general postoffice. About half of the usual number of trucks are in use. Secret service men ride as guards on the wagons.

Mrs. Eaton repeatedly contradicted the testimony given by witnesses for the prosecution, including that of her daughter, Dorothy.

AGED MAN IS SHOT DOWN COLD BLOOD

Would-be Slayer Says He Fired Shot the Day After Trivial Offense Because He Had Been Humiliated

Officer Makes Good Capture of Armed and Desperate Man as He Comes From Hiding to Get Water

Because Pedro Barola's foot happened to extend at the moment that Ramon Ybarra passed him in the Old Crow saloon in Brewery Gulch Sunday night, Ybarra armed himself with a cheap 38 calibre revolver Monday morning and sought Barola, shooting him with intent to kill.

As Barola crumpled up on the floor, Ybarra fled from the Crow saloon, where the shooting occurred, and ran up Brewery gulch. He took to the hills from the road and by the time word of the shooting reached the officers, was out of sight.

This was about 7:15 yesterday morning, at which time the shooting occurred. Shortly before noon, Ybarra was taken in custody by Deputy Sheriff Allie Howe, who was in the city from Tombstone and promptly set out after the would be murderer, with Frank Thomas. The arrest was made in a gulch near the home of Ybarra in the Zacatecas settlement at the upper end of Brewery.

Ybarra might have remained hidden in the hills indefinitely and possibly made his way out in safety to Mexico, but for the fact that he failed to cache a supply of water and food in advance of carrying out his murderous intent. Thirsting for a drink of water, he left his hiding place and ventured a trip to his home. The officers, scouting in the vicinity of the house, saw him coming and lay in wait in the gulch. As the man stalked into view, Deputy Howe threw a rifle down on him and commanded him to put his hands up. Ybarra at the first command failed to respond. Although knowing Ybarra to be armed and to be of a desperate character, the officer continued toward him, repeating his command. The second time, Ybarra, with evidence of reluctance, slowly raised his hands above his head.

As Ybarra stood with hands up, gawking at his capturers, he was searched and the 36 revolver taken from him. As he felt it leaving his pocket his right hand twitched and momentarily he appeared to be about to make a grab for the weapon. The rifle, his own, and which he knew to be fully loaded, leveled at him, caused him to change his mind. The revolver when examined was found to contain five unexploded cartridges and one exploded shell, the bullet from which rests in the back of the head of Barola.

As soon as Deputy Sheriff Howe learned the identity of the man who shot Barola, he went to the Ybarra house in Zacatecas. The mother of Ybarra, who is a comparatively young man and has been a laborer in the surface carpentering department of the Copper Queen, resented search of his effects and declared the loaded repeating rifle belonging to him and found in the house should not be taken away. The officer, however, declined to leave the weapon for the possible use of the man in making resistance to arrest, and because of this Ybarra faced his own gun when called upon to throw up his hands.
